

Spanish Talent Awards

Science

Ranked twelfth country in the world in scientific publication production, according to Scimago Journal & Country Rank.

Sports

49 Gold medals in the Olympic Games, along with 73 Silver and 52 Bronze medals.

Education

Spain is the third country in the EU with the most universities among the best in the world.

Scientific Excellence

The Spanish Government gives recognition to centers and research units that stand out for the relevance and international impact of the results of their scientific research.

36

Centers awarded the seal of scientific excellence Severo Ochoa, launched in 2011.

26

Research units with the seal of scientific excellence María de Maeztu, established in 2014.

11.963

researchers comprise these centers and scientific research units.

Spain, a country rich in talent, a magnet for talent

Hub for future talents

1st European destination

Spain leads the European ranking as a top destination for students participating in the Erasmus+ project.

3rd sending country

Also, one of the countries that has sent the most students to other countries.

The preferred university

The University of Granada, most popular among international Erasmus students.

Excellence in sports

49

Gold

Especially in sailing, cycling, and canoeing.

73

Silver

With canoeing, tennis, and sailing at the forefront.

52

Bronze

Featuring relevant disciplines such as athletics, cycling, and handball.